

Wedding Package 2023

Oasis Gardens

Oasis Gardens Restaurant is an Oasis of tranquillity and calm, which is nestled amongst the stark contrast of the Angas Plains farming land.

This family owned and operated Restaurant is located in the heart of the Langhorne Creek wine region and provides a unique and memorable setting for that special occasion. The modern buildings are surrounded by lush, fertile tropical gardens which were specifically designed to offer a place of refuge away from the busy pressures of life and provides a perfect backdrop for a wedding.

Oasis has an unsurpassed reputation for providing guests with an ultimate culinary experience, which is enhanced utilising local fresh produce and beverages.

Venue Choices

Oasis Gardens

In the award-winning tropical gardens there is a surprise around every corner with a cascading waterfall, large, picturesque pond and spacious lawn area, all surrounded by large palm trees and lush tropical plant foliage with the sounds of the peaceful rural location in the background.

The Restaurant

Overlooking the magnificent gardens, the fully enclosed modern Restaurant encapsulates the natural light and is constructed utilising a blend of wood and iron to fit in with the modern rustic surrounds.

No matter what the climatic conditions are, the air conditioning and large natural wood fire keeps the guest comfortable. A deck area also allows the guest to mingle informally.

Package Options

With extensive experience in food and beverage catering, Oasis Gardens Restaurant has a range of packages with a generous choice of options and fully caters for any special dietary requirements of guests. All packages are of a high standard and the Head Chef carefully selects the finest produce the region has to offer.

Oasis Gardens Restaurant works closely with reliable local partners within the community who will gladly assist in making your wedding day truly memorable.
